Green Screen Film Series

Coeur d' Alene Public Library, 702 E. Front Ave. Coeur d' Alene

Saturday, April 18 beginning at 2:00pm

Join us for a special Earth Day feature of the Green Screen Film Series, a thought provoking and audience engaging event series hosted by Kootenai Environmental Alliance. Each month, we'll share an environmental based film to provide insight and start a conversation about how to approach these topics locally. To close out our Earth Day celebration, join us in watching Look & See: A Portrait of Wendell Berry. This film is a documentary that explores the shifting values of rural America through the lens of author and farmer Wendell Berry's agrarian philosophy. The film contrasts traditional land stewardship with the impacts of modern industrial agriculture by blending Berry's own words with interviews from his Kentucky community.

Dave Baughman "The Outdoor Insider"

I had an exciting week, driving over to Hayden, Idaho and meeting with my new boat sponsor. Just one of many good things that have happened for me this spring. I am very excited about getting out on the water this season and talk about the great fishing waters near Spokane and Hayden!

Last Thursday I traveled to Hayden, Idaho and met with the folks at Mark's Marine, my new boat sponsor. I had met Aaron Thykeson and John Calder at the Big Horn Show in Spokane, and after a couple of follow up calls, was invited to visit the dealership and meet with the two of them and the general manager, Tony Schilling. What we talked about was what I could offer them in terms of exposure to sell boats, and what they would do for me. They were familiar with my large following in Eastern Washington and were able to offer me the use of a brand new 20 foot Thunder Jet Luxor boat. We spent a great deal of time deciding how the boat would be rigged. Included in the package would be a Mercury 200 hp main engine, a 9.9 kicker, a Minn Kota Ulterra bow mount electric motor and two Garmin fish finders. There were many more items and other details about what would go on the boat and how it would be set up. I am very excited about this new relationship and working with the terrific people at Mark's Marine! This week's photo is of me and the Marks Marine staff.

As Moses Lake fills each spring, one of the earliest boating accesses that anglers like to use is at Connelly Park. There is a deep water boat basin here and double docks. It is the closest one to the northern end of the lake, where the walleye fishing often begins, due to the shallow water. The park opened on April 8th this year, and can be used from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m., and is closed on Monday and Tuesday. The park is operated by the Moses Lake Irrigation and Rehabilitation District. There is a large parking area here and Sani Cans nearby. I often use this launch when fishing for walleye and bass on this end of the lake throughout the season. Many boaters have been using the launch at Blue Heron Park clear through the winter months. Moses Lake is filling rapidly now, and I expect the docks to be going in at the many boating accesses on the lake. There are a number of excellent parks at these launch sites, and some even have RV hook ups and camping. You can check them all out by visiting the Tour Moses Lake website.

Rufus Woods Reservoir is a huge attraction for anglers looking to land the biggest rainbow of their lives. It happens frequently. Although the big fish mark for many might be 5 or 6 pounds, which is easily done on Rufus, there are some real whoppers caught here every year. Thanks to the annual plants of triploid rainbow by the Colville Indian Tribe, there is always a good supply of fish growing in the reservoir. These plants average over 40,000 fish and are made up of fish averaging close to 2 pounds. I heard there was a release of over 20,000 fish last month. There are other plants planned, including some of a smaller number but made up of larger fish. The growth rate of these fish is amazing. Coupled with the abundance of feed that filters through the net pens, it takes just a short time for fish that weighed a couple of pounds to grow to 5 or 6 pounds. I have landed three rainbow that were estimated to weight over 15 pounds. On one spring day Eric Granstrom landed one on my boat that was estimated to weigh 20 pounds.

I got a text the other day from a friend that was interested in a sturgeon fishing trip and wanted to know the best time to go. I told him that I had an amazing day fishing for these monsters below Rock Island Dam with Austin Moser in May. The big, oversized sturgeon move into this area in the spring for spawning and anglers can often hook fish that are 8 to 10 feet long. It is a catch and release fishery and for many it is the only chance they get to do battle with fish in the "big game" category. I remember the day that I fished with Austin very well. Eric Granstrom was with us to do a video of our experience and Nate Stull was along as well. We hooked one fish in the fast water below the dam, and it ran right for the highway side of the river where the current was the strongest. I was on the rod and couldn't do a thing with it. It jumped twice and only after a battle that lasted at least a half hour, we got it next to the boat. We figured it was 12 to 13 feet long!

A couple of years ago I was assigned a video project that would showcase some of the best fishing waters in Grant County. I traveled throughout the county with my video gear and documented the great destinations that attract thousands of anglers a year. Whether you like to fish for trout, bass, walleye or other species there are lakes that promise excellent fishing. If you go to the Dave Graybill YouTube channel you will find these videos. One that is a good one to view right now is the one I did with my friends Brian Nielson and Mike Wren called "Walleye Fishing Hot Spots on Banks Lake". This is a good guide to the popular walleye fishing areas on upper Banks Lake. I also did one on "Where to Find Walleye on Potholes Reservoir". These videos may help you choose a great place to spend some time with your friends and family.

If you are a subscriber to my Facebook page you will have seen the video I did with Austin Moser on early season Banks Lake and Moses Lake walleye fishing. I will leave this up for one more week and then I will be posting one I did with Nate Stully on Banks Lake walleye fishing. If you want to see this one and others available only to subscribers, click the Subscribe button at the top of the page.

EBERT HOLDS OFF JEFFERSON RACING TEAMMATE RAZ FOR "APPLE CUP" WIN | From NWSLM Media & NW Motorsports News

Tucson's Ethan Ebert led the final 50 laps to claim the 57th annual Apple Cup staged at Tri City Raceway, April 12. The win was his second in as many appearances in West Richland as Ebert won the 2025 Fall Classic. NWSLM photo

WEST RICHLAND, WA. (April 12, 2026) – Jefferson Racing came to play in this year's 57th annual Bonney's TYM Tractors "Apple Cup 125" at Tri-City Raceway RMEC, leading every lap of the Northwest Super Late Model Series.

The victory was unlike the track's "Fall Classic 200", and the 2025 season finale for the NWSLMS, where Ethan Ebert did not grab the lead for the first time until less than 10 laps to go.

Ebert, and teammate Kole Raz battled at the front of the field the entire event, with Ebert scoring the rich $10,000 victory in an exciting brawl to the finish over Raz and Evergreen Speedway's most prolific late model champion, Naima Lang. Wyatt Gardner and Tayler Riddle made up the remainder of the top-5 finishers.

"Dude, it's just crazy", Ebert said in Victory Lane. "That was a crazy race! Kole and I were up front dominating the whole race in our Port City Racecars and that's how you do it baby!"

The win was Ebert's second in-a-row in a Super Late Model at the ½-mile tri-oval, taking home a combined $20,000 for his efforts that included the 2025 Fall Classic.

The Tucson, AZ driver finished fifth in Saturday's Pro Late Model race but would not be denied in Sunday's weekend finale, grabbing the lead from teammate Raz after a lap 75 caution.

Raz tried repeatedly to take the lead back, never falling more than two car lengths back. A strong charge in the final 10 laps saw Raz get to the inside on multiple occasions but was unable to finish the move.

"I had no idea that anyone else was on the racetrack other than Kole", Ebert said. "It was crazy being in front of him, because that's a name that if he is behind you, he is gonna' get around you. It's not if, but when."

Raz was only slightly disappointed in Victory Lane but praised his young teammate for the win.

"The kid did a helluva' job," Raz said. "It's been really fun to learn with him and try to give him my tips as I could, but I may have given him a little too much."

The next event for the Northwest Super Late Model Series presented by Knottical Marine will be at Mode Stadium Stateline Speedway on May 16 for the "SLS 150" It will be the series 10th visit to the ¼-mile facility where Haeden Plybon scored the victory last May.

57th Apple Cup Results:

Ethan Ebert, 2. Kole Raz, 3. Naima Lang, 4. Wyatt Gardner, 5. Tayler Riddle, 6. Johvan Dillon, 7. Jason Jefferson, 8. Kasey Kleyn, 9. Bryce Bezanson, 10. Max Schroeder, 11. Jason O'Neil, 12. Andy Beaman, 13. Ken Bonney, 14. Bud Rumsey, 15. Mike Burkhardt, 16. Christopher Kalsch, 17. Scott Walker, 18. Dave Garber, 19. Ryan Phipps, 20. Zach Telford, DNS Patrick Mullins, DNQ. Randy Marshall Jr., DNQ. Garrett Archer.

HAGAN WINS IN 1,000TH NHRA FUNNY CAR RACE. STEWART, ANDERSON ALSO GET VICTORIES AT WINTERNATIONALS
From NHRA media

POMONA, Calif. (April 12, 2026) – Four-time Funny Car world champion Matt Hagan won the 1,000th Funny Car race in NHRA history on Sunday at In-N-Out Burger Pomona Dragstrip, defeating three-time world champion Ron Capps in the final round to close out the 66th annual Lucas Oil NHRA Winternationals.

Tony Stewart (Top Fuel) and Greg Anderson (Pro Stock) also won the third of 20 races during the 2026 NHRA Mission Foods Drag Racing Series season.

Hagan went 3.876-seconds at 330.39 mph in his 12,000-horsepower Johnson's Horsepowered Garage Dodge//SRT Hellcat, holding off Capps' 3.893 at 334.32 in an epic side-by-side final round, capturing the milestone race in what was a thrilling matchup of the two winningest active drivers in the class.

"This race track has shown me so much love over the years. Racing Capps, man, it was like back in the day throwing it down, because we always used to throw down, so it just kind of felt natural," Hagen said.

Racing legend Tony Stewart delivered the first Top Fuel win for Elite Motorsports, going a weekend-best 3.683 at 332.51 in his 12,000-horsepower R&L Carriers dragster to knock off Justin Ashley in the championship round.

It's the first career win at In-N-Out Pomona Dragstrip for Stewart and his third career victory in his NHRA career, and this one will certainly be meaningful.

Stewart was .047 in the championship round and quickly tracked down Ashley on his standout run, getting the win a year after finishing as the Winternationals runner-up, this time during NHRA's 75th anniversary season.

In Pro Stock, six-time world champion Greg Anderson continued to rule the class at In-N-Out Pomona Dragstrip, as he won for a record-tying 17th time at the historic facility, holding off KB Titan Racing teammate Dallas Glenn in the final round with a run of 6.505 at 209.88 in his HendrickCars.com Chevrolet Camaro.

The NHRA Mission Foods Drag Racing Series returns to action April 24-26 with the NHRA 4-Wide Nationals at zMAX Dragway in Charlotte.
